— ABOUT MAXPLACES · FULL BOILERPLATE

MAXPlaces Marketing, LLC is an AI-forward digital marketing agency headquartered in Farmingdale, New York, with a second office in New York City. Founded in 2014, the firm helps mid-market and enterprise brands across every industry get discovered, cited, and recommended across AI answer engines and traditional search — and works with local businesses where the fit makes sense.

Its practice spans Generative Engine Optimization (GEO), Answer Engine Optimization (AEO), technical SEO, authority building, and paid search — engineering brands to be the trusted answer that AI systems and search engines surface. Anchored to its proprietary S.T.A.R. FrameworkSM, MAXPlaces operates under the principle of Digital Marketing Maximized.
